VOLUME I

Foreword

Many work; few know - the perils and hardships of putting together what we hope to become a championship annual. It is our sincere hope that those of you who share this art work will cherish it as a pictorial review of our first year at AJC.

We hope that you will occassionally take it from the shelf, dust it off, and relive the joy and pleasant moments of those warming moments at AJC.

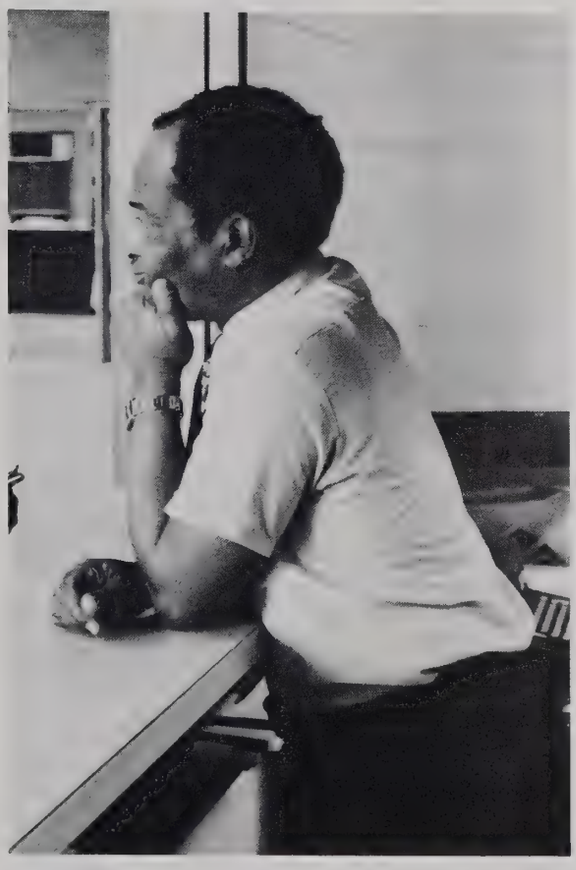
Mr. Tom Delton & Miss Lyle recruiting for Morh's Brown College

If he kissed her once will he kiss her again . . . . . I hope so.



Young lady, I told you that I am married . . . But

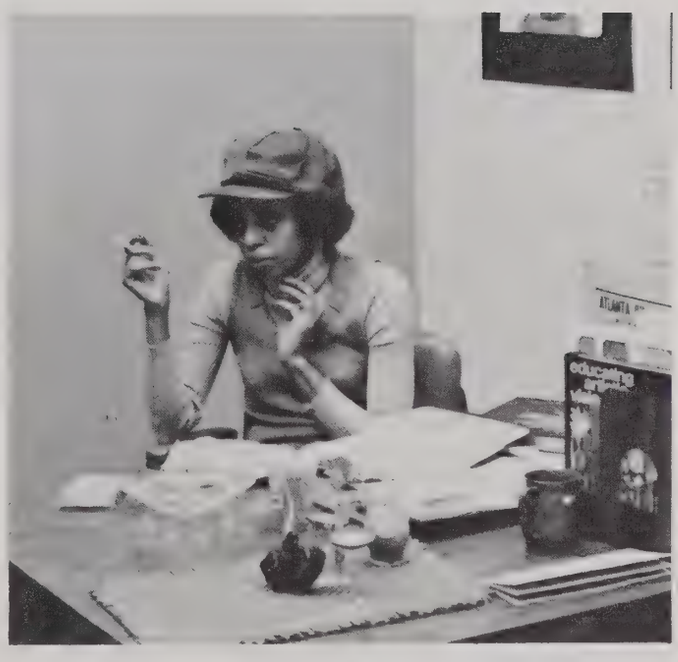
Mr. Reeves discusses serious problem with student. "The Devil made me do it."

Now! That is what I call educational innovations.

Happy Student

Young man . . . Please

I am really on a diet, but only on Saturday.



I swear, it was only coke Dr. Thompson.

Basketball

AJC started an intramural sports program this year, in which basketball was the first to be established . . . . A milestone in history.

EDITOR'S NOTE

In our countless hours of work, we tried to capture this year — a period we call "The Beginning". This book represent this year, a year of something new. There were many things we wanted to include, both traditions and innovations, but never materialized. The book was edited with the good of all in mind — another reflection of the year.

Our thanks to Mr. Bobby Olive, our advisor for his advice and help, and also to Dean Charles Easley Mr. Reginald New and Mr. Dan Troy for their help.

I am proud of being a part of this new environment, the Gensis Staff and myself hope that Gensis '75 stirs within you memories of the year . . .

THE BEGINNING.
